

HALAS HOMES GDPR

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation [GDPR] Halas Homes is committed to protecting your personal information when you are communicating with us. We will not provide any personal details collected through our websites or social media to third parties. Halas Homes does not sell or otherwise transfer any personal data to commercial companies or organisations. We collect and process the personal data that you may volunteer as part of your relationship with Halas Homes in order to receive information about Halas Homes and events or information you have requested.

We obtain personal information from you when a referral is made to us, when you make a donation to us, enquire about our events and activities, send or receive an email, ask a question about our services or otherwise provide us with your personal information.

We may use your personal data for:

- Providing you with the services, product or information you asked for
- Processing your donations
- Supporting fundraising activity
- Keeping a record of your relationship and communications with us
- Complying with our legal obligations, policies and procedures.
